

Medicinal Plants Diploma

The aim of this diploma is to provide pharmacists with theoretical and practical basic knowledge related to pharmacological actions and uses of medicinal plants. This diploma will be directed to pharmacists in general to answer questions about medicinal herbs and their proper and safe use, pharmacists in forensic medicine, to be acquainted with complete knowledge about medicinal plants toxicity and its management.

Semester	Code	Course Title	Credit Hours		Exam Time	Grades
			Lecture	Practical		Written	Practical	Oral	Total
First	DPG-201	Isolation and Evaluation of Natural Products	2	1	2	60	20	20	100
	DPG-202	Biotechnology and Natural Products	2	1	2	60	20	20	100
	DPG-203	Instrumental Analysis of Natural Products	2	-	2	80	-	20	100
Second	DPG-204	Adultration of Medicinal Plants	2	1	2	60	20	20	100
	DPG-205	Phytochemistry	2	1	2	60	20	20	100
	DPG-206	Poisonous Medicinal Plants	2	1	2	60	20	20	100
			17						600
	DPG-207	Research Project in Medicinal Plants	1
	Total credit hours		18						